

ARMY FOREIGN LIAISON NEWSLETTER

For Members of the Washington Corps of Military Attachés

Winter 2014

FROM THE DIRECTOR:

Dear Members of the Washington Corps of Military Attachés,

With the arrival of winter in Washington DC comes a certain level of uncertainty. What kind of winter will we have – cold and snowy, or dry and mild? What budgetary and other challenges will we be faced with in the new year? Though we may not have the answers to these questions, Army Foreign Liaison will continue to work hard in the coming year to support you in your engagements with the U.S. Army. As many of you may recall, we had to cancel our Information Brief which was scheduled to take place in December due to the weather. We are working hard to reschedule the briefing, as we believe it will be of great benefit to us all.

As we take a moment to reflect at the end of the year, I would like to thank each of you for your professionalism and hard work towards building fruitful relationships between the U.S. Army and your respective countries. It has been a pleasure for us to work with you, whether it was through Washington Association of Military Attachés (WAMA) events, Orientation Trips, Information Briefings, embassy events, or a combination of all of these!

With the New Year also comes the dissemination of the latest version of the Attaché Guide, to include the Administrative Guidance and the Social Directory. You should all have received a hard copy in the mail by now, or will soon. If you do not have a hard copy by mid-January 2014, call us so we can ensure you receive one. The Administrative Guidance is also available for download on the FL Website. As a friendly reminder, please familiarize yourself with the content of the Administrative Guide. We find that many times the mistakes made in processes and procedures are due to a lack of knowledge of the procedures and processes as found in the Administrative Guide. It is essential that you know them and that you comply with them; it will make your life, and our life, much easier if you do. To that end, at a date to be determined, we will have an exceptional information brief focused on administrative procedures that will be for both you and your administrative and support staff personnel. More information will be forthcoming.

Also, to help us to better support you, I ask that each of you verify your personal information contained in the enclosed “Foreign Military Attaché Roster” and the enclosed “Foreign Military Attaché Email Roster” and contact either Ms. Robin Proudie (countries beginning with the letters A through K, email robin.a.proudie.civ@mail.mil or phone 703-692-1465) or Ms. Jackie Green (countries beginning with the letters L through Z, email jacqueline.m.green.civ@mail.mil or phone 703-692-1469) with any changes or updates.

As we proceed into 2014, we will continue with our mission to provide you with the best programs and support that we possibly can. I encourage each of you to participate in as many Army-related activities as you are able, to include WAMA events. I think you will find that the more of these activities you participate in, the more you will get out of your tour in Washington DC.

Finally, I hope that each of you is able to take some time to relax and spend time with your families during this holiday season. I wish you all the best, and look forward to working with each of you in the coming year.

Sincerely,

Joseph K. Smith
Colonel, United States Army
Director, Foreign Liaison

WAMA DEAN'S CORNER

Fellow Attachés,

As the weather gets colder and the days grow shorter, we might ask ourselves "Where did 2013 go?" Since my last "Dean's Corner" we have all been busy either settling into or continuing with our Attaché duties.

October brought the start of many Embassy receptions, which provide a tremendous opportunity for us and our spouses to bond as an Attaché community. Now that we are in the busy holiday season many of us are struggling with that eternal Attaché challenge of de-conflicting events, often scheduled on the same night. Of course, our bosses at home also expect us to stay on top of daily business and, for many, hosting late-year VIP visits was added to our "to do" list. The AUSA Annual Conference in late October saw many high-ranking contingents visit DC, allowing the Attaché community to show what gracious hosts we can be. I don't remember being told how to cope with this sort of "social battlefield" in my officer training.

From a WAMA point of view there have been two great functions in the last Quarter of 2013; the WAMA Lunch and Winter Ball.

On 5 November the third WAMA Lunch was hosted at the Hungarian Embassy. The lunch was very well attended and we were able to hear some sage words from the Director of the Army Staff (DAS), LTG Bill Grisoli. The DAS's presentation was thought provoking and came as the United States was asking itself "How does a Government just Shut-down?" I watched with interest and a smile as some Attachés were transformed from happy lunch-goers to serious note-takers, as the DAS spoke about some of the challenges faced by the US Army. I would like to thank Colonel Zoltan Bone, the Hungarian Military Attaché and his staff for a superb lunch. I would also like to acknowledge the great work by LTC Kaname Yamashita, of Japan, for rallying us all to the Hungarian Embassy for an informative and enjoyable afternoon.

As a small advertisement, we are always looking for a Defense or Military Attaché who can host a WAMA lunch at their Embassy or another location. If you can host a WAMA lunch in 2014 please contact LTC Yamashita. There are ways WAMA can assist you with some of the costs.

The WAMA Winter Ball at the Westin Hotel on 6 December was a most memorable evening. The 104 people who attended were treated to a lovely setting, fine food, great music and warm fellowship. It was a fitting end to a busy year for all in the Corps of Military Attachés. My heartfelt thanks go to Colonel Richard Smith, of the UK, and his wife Jo for all their attentiveness and flair in bringing together a splendid evening. I would also like to thank everyone who attended. You were the most important ingredient for the evening. I encourage you all back next year or ask that you commend the Winter Ball to your replacement, if you are leaving DC next summer.

As a reminder, membership is what keeps WAMA alive. Military Attachés can join WAMA by submitting the application form that they received at their Accreditation Ceremony or they can download an application form from our website at www.wama-dc.com. Remember, if you have military staff, who are not Attachés, they are welcome to join WAMA as Affiliate Members. Also, I encourage wives and partners to join the Military Attaché Wives Association (MAWA). MAWA details can be found at: www.sites.google.com/site/mawawashington/

I would like to conclude this "Deans Corner" by thanking the Regional Directors, Executive Committee and Army Foreign Liaison Directorate for their continued support of WAMA, especially since I have been the Dean. I believe we have developed a positive direction in which we want to take WAMA in 2014. I look forward to working with you again next year, to build on this year's achievements, as we engage with one another and our US hosts.

I hope you and your families can now enjoy a break in December or January and get ready for what I'm sure will be a rewarding 2014.

ATTACHÉ COORDINATION:

Dear Colleagues,

Holiday Greetings to all from the crew in Attaché Coordination. We hope you have all had a chance to enjoy the many holiday activities in and around the Washington DC area. It is indeed a great time of year to recharge our batteries after a very busy year and prepare for the upcoming year. We hope that your new year is full of success and happiness for you and your families.

I would like to take this opportunity to thank you all for taking part in our programs throughout 2013. We hope that you have found them to be enjoyable and useful. We are also getting ready for an eventful 2014, and hope that you will have the opportunity to join us at these events. These events include the quarterly information briefs, with one additional brief at a date to be determined focusing on administrative procedures. We are also planning our three trips this year as noted below.

Once again, we wish you and your families a Happy Holiday season and look forward to working with you in the coming year.

R. Reed Anderson
Lieutenant Colonel, United States Army
Chief, Attaché Coordination Division

Military Attaché Orientation Program Notes:

Attaché Information Briefings:

Winter includes possibly two information briefings: one to be scheduled for date to be determined focusing on administrative procedures; and the second on 7 March, for which we are still working to confirm the topic. The latter briefing is scheduled to take place on Fort Myer in the Spates Community Club; the location for the first briefing has yet to be determined. Also, if schedules and timing permit, we may reschedule the 11 December information briefing that we had to cancel due to the government inclement weather closure. As usual, invitations and registration forms will go out about two weeks before the briefing dates. Please continue to provide your suggestions and requests for information briefing topics to LTC Reed Anderson and we will do our best to accommodate your interests and concerns.

Attaché Orientation Trips:

As you all know, we regretfully had to cancel our Fall 2013 trip due to the challenges with the government shutdown and a lack of an approved budget. Because we felt the locations were important, for our Spring 2014 trip we have decided to follow the same general itinerary that we had planned for the Fall 2013 trip. Ms. Abbey Green and LTC Anderson are planning for this trip to the Southwestern United States (Arizona and Texas), which will include stops at the Grand Canyon, Phoenix, Arizona, Fort Huachuca, Arizona (Military Intelligence Center of Excellence), and Fort Bliss, Texas (home of the 1st Armored Division and the US Army Sergeants Major Academy). The trip will take place from 26 April-3 May 2014. Invitations will go out is late February.

Our summer trip for 2014 will include a visit to the U.S. Army War College in Carlisle Barracks, Pennsylvania. We will follow that with a battle staff ride at the Gettysburg Civil War battlefield site. We are tentatively planning on 8-9 July 2014 for this trip, but are working to confirm the dates with the War College. We are confident this will be a trip worth taking.

Our Fall 2014 Orientation Trip is also in the initial planning stages, which will take place 1-8 November 2014. This trip will tentatively take us to New Orleans, Louisiana, the Joint Readiness Training Center at Fort Polk, Louisiana, the Army Aviation Center of Excellence at Fort Rucker, Alabama, and Redstone Arsenal in Huntsville, Alabama. We hope you will be able to join us on this trip.

FROM ARMY FOREIGN DISCLOSURE:

Processing of One-time and Extended Visit Requests:

The online computer-based Foreign Visit System (FVS) remains the preferred method to submit visit requests. Use of the computer-based FVS expedites request processing time, provides a means of checking a visit's status and provides a means for confirming receipt of submitted visit requests. Embassies not using the computer-based FVS are hampered by the additional processing and staffing time required for manually submitted visit requests. Embassies are strongly encouraged to install and use the computer-based FVS. Installation of the computer-based FVS and associated instructional training on use of the computer-based FVS is available at no cost to Embassies. The only technical requirement for use of the computer-based FVS is Microsoft Internet Explorer 7.0 or higher. Embassies are encouraged to contact your Desk Officer or the DoD FVS Office at 571-372-7623 or by email at DTSASPANSupport@dtsa.mil to coordinated installation of the computer-based FVS and to arrange for the associated training.

Please also note that official visit requests must be sent to Foreign Disclosure, not to Foreign Liaison. Every country has a primary and an alternate Foreign Disclosure Desk Officer whom they are encouraged to contact with any questions on submitting Foreign Visit Request as well as Requests for Information. Please see the Desk Officer listing included with enclosures to identify your Desk Officer.

One-time Visit Requests:

In accordance with the Military Attaché Guide (Administrative Guidance), all Requests for Visit Authorization (RVA) should be submitted at least 30 days prior to the start date of the visit. The Office of the Deputy Chief of Staff, G-2, will not process RVAs submitted less than ten working days (14 calendar days) prior to the requested start date of the visit. Visits submitted less than ten working days (14 calendar days) will be immediately returned without action. This affords the hosting U.S. Army Command the professional courtesy and necessary time to properly prepare for the visit and any related actions.

The only two exceptions to the 10 working day suspense requirement are:

-- Visits to the Army Secretariat and Army Staff;

-- Visits deemed mission essential or time sensitive by the U.S. Army. In order for you to be able to utilize this exception, a DA organization must have submitted a request for waiver to the Office of the Deputy Chief of Staff, G-2, on your behalf.

Extended Visit Requests:

All Extended Visit Requests must be submitted 90 days prior to the requested visit start date concurrently with the Extended Visitor's Photograph and Biography in accordance with the Military Attache Guide; Administrative Guidance. Extended Visit Requests submitted less than 90 days prior to the requested visit start date or submitted without the required Photograph and Biography will be returned to the Embassy without action. Photographs and Biographies must be sent, in accordance with the Military Attache Guide; Administrative Guidance, to:

usarmy.pentagon.hqda-dcs-g-2.mbx.dami-cd-guardian@mail.mil

Extended Visit Requests, must include the following information in Case Details section of the Extended Visit Request: the name of the incumbent officer and the type of position the new officer will fill (Military Personnel Exchange Program Officer, Cooperative Personnel Program Officer, Foreign Liaison Officer, or Engineer and Scientist Exchange Program Officer).

Extended Visit Requests must include the following accompanying family member information in the Embassy Remarks Section of the Extended Visit Request: the family member's full name, passport number, gender, birth date, country of citizenship and relationship to the sponsor. If the Official on Extended Visit Request does not have accompanying family members, a statement to that effect should be included in the Embassy Remarks Section of the Extended Visit Request.

These important administrative requirements provide the hosting U.S. Army Command with key information necessary to prepare for and properly support the extended visitor and the extended visitor's accompanying family members. Extended Visit Requests submitted without this key information may be returned to the Defense Attaché Office without action.

Requests for Information:

To avoid processing delays when submitting Requests for Information (RFI), please ensure the request is sent to the RFI inbox, usarmy.pentagon.hqda-dcs-g-2.mbx.dami-cd-foreign-disclo@mail.mil and not to Foreign Liaison. If you have any questions, call your Foreign Disclosure (DAMI-CDS) Desk Officer. They are all listed in the roster attached to this newsletter and are prepared to assist you in your submittals.

RECURRING ADMINISTRATIVE NOTES AND REMINDERS:

Office Calls and Other Meetings with the G-2:

Army Foreign Liaison is the point of contact to arrange any office calls or other meetings with the G-2 or any of the senior leaders within the G-2. Please do not contact the G-2 front office directly as this will only slow down your request when the front office personnel refer you back to Foreign Liaison. If a Military Attaché wants to meet with any G-2 senior leader, please contact the Director, Deputy Director or Chief of Coordination Division. If you want to arrange for a delegation to meet with anyone in G-2, please contact Foreign Liaison Operations Division. If you are not sure whom to contact, just call any one of us and we will get you on the right track.

Attaché Biographic Data Form:

The Attaché Coordination Division asks that you make use of the Biographic Information Form (Annex A-2 in the Attaché Guide) for accreditation and submit the completed form electronically to jacqueline.m.green.civ@mail.mil or robin.a.proudie.civ@mail.mil. You may also send a paper copy via the diplomatic courier facility. Submit it along with the other documents which are listed at: <http://www.dami.army.pentagon.mil/DAMI-FLGuide.aspx>.

Military Attaché Guide:

The November 2013 Social Directory and the October 2013 Administrative Guidance are the most recently published versions of the Attaché Guide. The new edition includes instructions on completed the new DD Form 1172-2 for identification cards and DEERS enrollment, which was noted in previous versions of the newsletter. You should have already received a hard copy in the mail, and we have also posted the Administrative Guidance on the FL website. As you may well imagine, the information in the Social Directory is constantly changing due to changes in the Attaché Corps, so please continue to keep us informed of changes as they happen. Please send any updates to robin.a.proudie.civ@mail.mil (for countries from A-K) or to jacqueline.m.green.civ@mail.mil (for countries from L-Z). We plan on publishing an update in the fall.

Military Personnel Exchange Program (MPEP) Nominations:

Nomination of exchange officers is a separate process which must be completed 90-180 days before expected arrival and before submitting the Extended Visit Request (EVR).

Submit MPEP nominations to U.S. Army International Affairs (MPEP Branch) 90-180 days before expected arrival of exchange officer. Nominations should include: U.S. MPEP #, host U.S. unit, military biography with photograph and expected arrival date.

MPEP Branch will process all nominations in less than 30 days. To streamline the process, you may consider your nominee accepted if you receive no response after 30 days.

MPEP Branch Points of Contact for nominations or questions:

- John C. Wirick, Branch Chief, 703-692-8218, john.c.wirick.civ@mail.mil
- Charles N. Roster, 703-692-8218, charles.n.roster.civ@mail.mil

PROTOCOL:

Ms. Sofia Stasishyn and Ms. Abbey Green are ready to help you. Please direct any invitations, correspondence, or protocol questions to the FL Protocol e-mail: hqda-dcs-g-2.mbx.fl-protocol@mail.mil

You can contact Sofia directly at: sofia.stasishyn.civ@mail.mil or 703-692-1459. You can contact Abbey at: abbey.l.green2.civ@mail.mil or 703-692-1457.

Invitations:

General Guidelines:

Please direct any questions that you may have regarding protocol or invitations to the Army Foreign Liaison Protocol Section. We ask that you follow these guidelines concerning official social invitations extended to U.S. Army personnel:

- Please deliver invitations to Army Foreign Liaison at least 15 calendar days in advance of the event for the best U.S. Army representation.
- All invitations for Headquarters, Department of the Army personnel for official social occasions in the greater Washington, DC, area must be sent through Army Foreign Liaison. This enables Army Foreign Liaison to help you achieve your desired attendance. We ensure invitations are delivered promptly and monitor responses.
- To request the most current U.S. Army Foreign Liaison "A" List prior to sending your invitations, you may contact the Foreign Liaison Protocol Section at 703-692-1457 or 703-692-1459, or email your request to sofia.stasishyn.civ@mail.mil or abbey.l.landry.civ@mail.mil.

Hard Copy or Paper Invitations:

- PLEASE, DO NOT MAIL INVITATIONS. Deliver invitations directly to Foreign Liaison Protocol Section in Room 2E424, or to us through the Department of Defense (DoD) Diplomatic Courier located in the Pentagon Remote Delivery Facility (RDF) between 1000-1100 hours, Monday through Friday, except U.S. holidays. Please note that each invitation must reflect complete TO and FROM addresses.
- Invitations extended to U.S. Army general officers and U.S. Army civilian employees of similar rank should be accompanied by a list of all U.S. Service invitees.
- When sending invitations to a number of people for a single event, we recommend you email a scanned or electronic version of the invitation, along with a complete list of invitees, to Foreign Liaison Protocol at usarmy.pentagon.hqda-dcs-g-2.mbx.fl-protocol@mail.mil, or fax a complete list of invitees to Foreign Liaison Protocol at 703-697-8412.

Email Invitations:

The use of e-vites is very practical, but we must issue the following guidelines to any embassies using these e-mail based invitations.

If you send invitations directly by e-mail to Headquarters, Department of the Army personnel, please also e-mail a list of all invitees to the event to usarmy.pentagon.hqda-dcs-g-2.mbx.fl-protocol@mail.mil

Please do not e-mail invites directly to the senior Army leadership. By that, we mean, the Secretary of the Army, the Chief of Staff of the Army, the Under Secretary of the Army, the Vice Chief of Staff of the Army, and the Director of the Army Staff. If you wish to invite those individuals, let FL Protocol know and we will deliver the invitations. Army officials expect invitations to be routed through Army Foreign Liaison. If an invitation is sent directly to a senior leader’s office, they return it to Foreign Liaison for proper routing anyway. Therefore, the most efficient delivery method is to deliver your US Army invitations to the Foreign Liaison Protocol Officers by email, courier or fax.

Dress:

Prescribing dress in invitations can be confusing, especially for military uniforms. For the next few years, it will be even more confusing as the Army phases out the Army Green Uniform and transitions to the new Army Service Uniform, which will, for the most part, mirror the current Army Dress Blue Uniform. During this transition period, Army personnel may wear either the Army Green Uniform or the Army Blue Uniform as the Class “A” uniform. We emphasize that you at the foreign embassies should not have to guess which uniform is appropriate for U.S. Army personnel. Please use one of the standard categories of dress: formal (rarely used), semi-formal, informal, casual or very casual. Based on that guidance, Army personnel will know the correct uniform to wear. If you want all attendees in civilian dress, please make that clear.

The most confusing category of civilian dress is “casual,” and its various versions, such as “business casual” or “smart casual.” The category can include everything from jacket and tie to a polo shirt and slacks. To reduce confusion, you should always explain what you mean by “casual” when it is on an invitation.

The following chart illustrates the civilian and equivalent military standards of dress. Note that as the Army phases in the Army Service Uniform and phases out the Green Uniform, the pre-and post-1800 distinction will disappear.

Category of Dress	Civilian Attire	U.S. Army Uniform
Formal	White Tie	Army Mess Dress Uniform
Semi-Formal	Tuxedo (Black Tie)	Army Mess Dress, Dress Blue with Black Bow Tie, or Army Service Uniform (Blue) with Black Bow Tie
Informal	Business Suit	Before 1800: Army Service Uniform (Blue) or Army Green Uniform After 1800: Army Service Uniform or Dress Blue with Four-in-Hand Tie
Casual	Sports Jacket with or without Tie (Invitation should stipulate this)	Army Class B Uniform (either Army Service Uniform or Army Green) Note: This is rarely used, and is limited to certain events, usually during hot weather.
Very Casual	Shirt and Slacks with or without Jacket. (If more casual attire is desired, such as for a barbecue, the invitation should stipulate this)	None
