

ARMY FOREIGN LIAISON NEWSLETTER

For Members of the Washington Corps of Military Attachés

Spring 2015

FROM THE DIRECTOR:

Dear Members of the Washington Corps of Military Attachés,

As we prepare to publish this newsletter, our thoughts are turning to sunshine, birds singing, and flowers blooming, and thus we begin the thaw from a long, cold, hard winter, one which saw the coldest February in the area in many years. We certainly hope that as spring gradually takes over the long grasp of winter, we will all feel renewed and refreshed and ready for the active spring and summer ahead.

We are grateful for the tremendous turn out to our most recent information briefing. This was by far the most well attended information briefing in quite some time. We will continue to do our best to provide you topics and briefers that are relevant for both the United States Army, as well as for you. Should you have any suggestions on topics you would like addressed, please do not hesitate to let us know.

We are excited about our upcoming Spring Orientation Trip. The Midwest in the spring is a beautiful part of the country, and Chicago has so much unique culture to offer. We are grateful to those who will be able to join us on this trip. For those who cannot attend there will be another opportunity during our three-day summer trip to the U.S. Army Training and Doctrine Command, Colonial Williamsburg, and Yorktown, 15-17 June.

As always, Army Foreign Liaison will continue to provide the Attaché Corps with professional, responsive service.

Sincerely,

Darren D. Lynn
Colonel, United States Army
Director, Foreign Liaison

WAMA DEAN'S CORNER

Fellow Attachés,

We are now well into 2015 and the holiday season is a distant memory. In good Attaché fashion we were too busy to notice how cold it was this past winter. Okay...I think we are all happy to see the weather getting a little warmer, now that spring is here.

There are three main Attaché events to report, being the WAMA Annual General Meeting (AGM), the first WAMA lunch and first Attaché briefing session for the year.

On January 29th WAMA started its normal "battle rhythm" for the year by holding its AGM. Thanks to the Italian Embassy and Italian Military Attaché, COL Rodolfo Sganga, for making your theatre available for the AGM. We are also grateful that the Italian Ambassador was able to give some of his time and address the WAMA members, amongst other things he reflected on his days as a paratrooper. To the WAMA membership, thank you for approving the budget for 2015. This will give the Executive Committee the ability to conduct business on your behalf. Thanks to the Executive Secretary, LTC Rob Crawford (Australia) for bringing the AGM together and also the Treasurer, LTC Ken Butterworth (Canada) for planning a budget that the membership was happy to approve.

Immediately following the AGM, the Italian Embassy put on a delicious lunch, allowing holiday season stories to be swapped and also many predictions of how much colder the winter would get. In all, it was a fitting way to start the year. Thanks again to LTC Kaname Yamashita (Japan) for coordinating the lunch with COL Sganga.

As always WAMA is looking for Attachés who can host a WAMA lunch at their Embassy or another location for up to 80 Attachés. If you can host a WAMA lunch this year, please contact LTC Yamashita. WAMA can assist you with some of the costs.

While not a WAMA event on March 19th AOWCGWA held its International Showcase at the Fort Myer Officers' Club, a special mention goes to the WAMA spouses (many from MAWA) who put in a tremendous effort and provided a national "table" on the day. It was a fantastic day and great to see the number of Attachés who were lending a hand, so their country was well represented and they supported their spouse.

More recently, the Corps of Military Attachés gathered at the Fort Myer Officers' Club on March 20th for the first of the briefing sessions for the year. It was a morning that focused on military intelligence. We were fortunate to hear from Army Cyber Command (Mr Joseph Purser) and get an insightful overview of the US Army's intelligence framework and challenges from the Deputy Chief of Staff of the Army G2, LTG Mary Legere. LTG Legere then handed over to the Commanding General of Intelligence and Security Command, MG George Franz, who outlined how his formations and people go about tackling the myriad intelligence demands of the US Army and building capability across the different intelligence disciplines. Thank you to the team at Army Foreign Liaison for a very interesting series of presentations.

Scanning ahead into spring, the next main WAMA event is the Annual Spring Dinner on Saturday April 18th at the University of California Campus on Rhode Island Avenue NW. Invitations have gone out and questions can be directed to LTC Rob Crawford at the Australian Embassy. I would like to see many of you on the night, as we hold our Spring Dinner at a little piece of California in the middle of DC.

If you haven't already please renew your WAMA membership - we want you back. Also, please encourage others to join. Membership reminders have been sent to you and application forms are at the WAMA website at www.wama-dc.com . Remember, if you have military staff who are not Attachés, they are welcome to join WAMA as Associate Members. Also, I encourage wives and partners to join the Military Attaché Wives' Association (MAWA). Information is at www.sites.google.com/site/mawawashington

I look forward to an exciting and busy 2015 and building relationships amongst the Military Attaché community.

ATTACHÉ COORDINATION:

Dear Colleagues,

Baseball season is upon us, and so are all the splendid colors, smells, and sounds that come with spring. We hope that those of you new to the Washington area will be able to enjoy the pleasures of spring and get a chance to take in an afternoon or evening game of America's Pastime – baseball – at Nationals Park. And don't forget the Capitals and Wizards will still be playing through the spring as well.

We are grateful for the well-attended information briefing in March, and look forward to our July information briefing where General Allyn, the Vice Chief of Staff of the Army, will be our keynote speaker. We are also excited about the Spring Orientation Trip to the Midwest United States the end of April, and for our Summer Orientation Trip to the US Army Training and Doctrine Command, which will include a visit to Colonial Williamsburg and a Staff Ride of the Yorktown Battlefield. This will be a fun and active spring and summer.

As we forge ahead into spring, let's dust off the snow (and the sand and the salt), put away the snow shovels, and get out and enjoy the cherry blossoms and all things spring. We wish you all the best and look forward to seeing each of you soon.

Military Attaché Orientation Program Notes:

Attaché Information Briefings:

Our next information brief is scheduled for 7 July 2015. General Allyn, the Vice Chief of Staff of the Army, will be our keynote speaker. The morning will also include a briefing on the 2015 Army Posture Statement. We will of course send out invitations and registration forms about two weeks before the briefing date. We also ask that you continue to provide your suggestions and requests for information briefing topics to LTC Reed Anderson and we will do our best to accommodate your interests and concerns.

Attaché Orientation Trips:

The registration for our Spring 2015 trip is closed and we are grateful to those who are able to join us. The trip takes place from 25 April to 2 May 2015, and will begin in Chicago, Illinois where we will visit with the Illinois National Guard, and take in some of the unique culture of Chicago. From there, we will do an out-and-back day trip to Fort McCoy, Wisconsin which is home of one of the US Army Reserve's largest and busiest training centers. We then head down to Fort Riley, Kansas to visit with the First Infantry Division, and then on to Fort Leavenworth, Kansas/Kansas City, Missouri to visit with the Combined Arms training Center and take in some of the Midwest culture in Kansas city.

Our summer trip for 2015 will include a visit to the U.S. Army Training and Doctrine Command in Fort Eustis, Virginia. The trip will begin with a day touring Colonial Williamsburg, and will conclude with a battle field Staff Ride at the site of the Battle of Yorktown, the culminating battle of the American Revolution. The trip will take place from 15-17 June 2015, and you should see invitations coming out in mid-April. We are confident this will be a trip worth taking.

Our Fall 2015 Orientation Trip is also in the initial planning stages, which will take place 31 October-7 November 2015. This trip will take us to San Antonio, Texas where we intend to kick off the trip in true Western style with a Barbeque and a Rodeo. In San Antonio we will visit with US Army North, US Army South, US Army Medical Command, and a US Army Reserve Engineer Battalion that includes horizontal and vertical construction units. From there we'll move to Austin, Texas where we will learn how to do some country dancing, and visit with the Texas National Guard, which will include an orientation with its 36th Infantry Division and subordinate units. We will conclude the trip at Fort Hood, Texas which is the home of the U.S. Army 3rd Corps, 1st Cavalry Division and numerous other units. We hope you will be able to join us on this trip.

FROM ARMY FOREIGN DISCLOSURE:

Visits and Information Requests Process Improvements: In the coming months, Mr. Brian Cotter and Mr. Matt Perez will be reaching out to the embassies to schedule meetings to obtain feedback on the Foreign Visit Requests (FVRs) and Requests for Information (RFIs) processes for potential improvements. Your feedback will be very important in helping to shape any improvement opportunities.

Personnel:

Mr. Brian Cotter (Brian.F.Cotter2.civ@mail.mil, 703-695-1041) is responsible for all Foreign Visit Requests for the following regions/international organizations:

Africa
Canada
Middle East
NATO
Oceania
Europe

Mr. Matthew Perez (Matthew.W.Perez3.civ@mail.mil, 703-695-1085) is responsible for all Foreign Visit Requests for the following regions:

Asia
Latin America

Processing of One-time and Extended Visit Requests:

The online computer-based Foreign Visit System (FVS) remains the preferred method to submit visit requests. Use of the computer-based FVS expedites request processing time, provides a means of checking a visit's status and provides a means for confirming receipt of submitted visit requests. Embassies not using the computer-based FVS are hampered by the additional processing and staffing time required for manually submitted visit requests. Embassies are strongly encouraged to install and use the computer-based FVS. Installation of the computer-based FVS and associated instructional training on use of the computer-based FVS is available at no cost to Embassies. The only technical requirement for use of the computer-based FVS is Microsoft Internet Explorer 7.0 or higher. Embassies are encouraged to contact your Desk Officer or the DoD FVS Office at 571-372-7623 or by email at DTSASPANSupport@dtsa.mil to coordinated installation of the computer-based FVS and to arrange for the associated training.

Please also note that official visit requests must be sent to Foreign Disclosure, not to Foreign Liaison. Every country has a primary and an alternate Foreign Disclosure Desk Officer whom they are encouraged to contact with any questions on submitting Foreign Visit Request as well as Requests for Information. Please see the Desk Officer listing included with enclosures to identify your Desk Officer.

One-time Visit Requests:

In accordance with the Military Attaché Guide (Administrative Guidance), all Requests for Visit Authorization (RVA) should be submitted at least 30 days prior to the start date of the visit. The Office of the Deputy Chief of Staff, G-2, will not process RVAs submitted less than ten working days (14 calendar days) prior to the requested start date of the visit. Visits submitted less than ten working days (14 calendar days) will be immediately returned without action. This affords the hosting U.S. Army Command the professional courtesy and necessary time to properly prepare for the visit and any related actions.

The only two exceptions to the 10 working day suspense requirement are:

-- Visits to the Army Secretariat and Army Staff;

-- Visits deemed mission essential or time sensitive by the U.S. Army. In order for you to be able to utilize this exception, a DA organization must have submitted a request for waiver to the Office of the Deputy Chief of Staff, G-2, on your behalf.

Extended Visit Requests:

All Extended Visit Requests must be submitted 90 days prior to the requested visit start date concurrently with the Extended Visitor's Photograph and Biography in accordance with the Military Attaché Guide; Administrative Guidance. Extended Visit Requests submitted less than 90 days prior to the requested visit start date or submitted without the required Photograph and Biography will be returned to the Embassy without action. Photographs and Biographies must be sent, in accordance with the Military Attaché Guide; Administrative Guidance, to:

usarmy.pentagon.hqda-dcs-g-2.mbx.dami-cd-guardian@mail.mil

Extended Visit Requests, must include the following information in Case Details section of the Extended Visit Request: the name of the incumbent officer and the type of position the new officer will fill (Military Personnel Exchange Program Officer, Cooperative Personnel Program Officer, Foreign Liaison Officer, or Engineer and Scientist Exchange Program Officer).

Extended Visit Requests must include the following accompanying family member information in the Embassy Remarks Section of the Extended Visit Request: the family member's full name, passport number, gender, birth date, country of citizenship and relationship to the sponsor. If the Official on the Extended Visit Request does not have accompanying family members, a statement to that effect should be included in the Embassy Remarks Section of the Extended Visit Request.

These important administrative requirements provide the hosting U.S. Army Command with key information necessary to prepare for and properly support the extended visitor and the extended visitor's accompanying family members. Extended Visit Requests submitted without this key information may be returned to the Defense Attaché Office without action.

Requests for Information:

To avoid processing delays when submitting Requests for Information (RFI), please ensure the request is sent to the RFI inbox, usarmy.pentagon.hqda-dcs-g-2.mbx.dami-cd-foreign-disclo@mail.mil and not to Foreign Liaison. If you have any questions, call your Foreign Disclosure (DAMI-CDD) Desk Officer. They are all listed in the roster attached to this newsletter and are prepared to assist you in your submittals.

RECURRING ADMINISTRATIVE NOTES AND REMINDERS:

Office Calls and Other Meetings with the G-2:

Army Foreign Liaison is the point of contact to arrange any office calls or other meetings with the G-2 or any of the senior leaders within the G-2. Please do not contact the G-2 front office directly as this will only slow down your request when the front office personnel refer you back to Foreign Liaison. If a Military Attaché wants to meet with any G-2 senior leader, please contact the Director, Deputy Director or Chief of Coordination Division. If you want to arrange for a delegation to meet with anyone in G-2, please contact Foreign Liaison Operations Division. If you are not sure whom to contact, just call any one of us and we will get you on the right track.

Attaché Biographic Data Form:

The Attaché Coordination Division asks that you make use of the Biographic Information Form (Annex A-2 in the Attaché Guide) for accreditation and submit the completed form electronically to jacqueline.m.green.civ@mail.mil or robin.a.proudie.civ@mail.mil. You may also send a paper copy via the diplomatic courier facility. Submit it along with the other documents which are listed at: <http://www.dami.army.pentagon.mil/DAMI-FLGuide.aspx>.

Military Attaché Guide:

You should have received the updated versions of the Social Directory and the Administrative Guidance. The versions reflect a date of December 2014, and will remain the most recently published versions of the Attaché Guide for about one year. The new edition includes updated instructions on completing the DD Form 1172-2 for identification cards and DEERS enrollment. We have also posted the Administrative Guidance on the FL website. As you may well imagine, the information in the Social Directory is constantly changing due to changes in the Attaché Corps, so please continue to keep us informed of changes as they happen. Please send any updates to robin.a.proudie.civ@mail.mil (for countries from A-K) or to jacqueline.m.green.civ@mail.mil (for countries from L-Z).

Military Personnel Exchange Program (MPEP) Nominations:

Nomination of exchange officers to established MPEP positions is a two-step process which must be completed 90-180 days before expected arrival of the exchange participant.

Step One: Submit a nomination email to the HQDA MPEP Branch Chief and include the U.S. Army MPEP Position #, the U.S. Army host unit, a military biography and photograph of the nominee, and expected arrival date.

The MPEP Branch will process all nominations with the host unit chain of command in less than 30 days. To streamline the process, you may consider your nominee accepted if you receive no response after 30 days.

Step Two: Once the host unit chain of command has concurred with your nominee and no later than 30 days prior to arrival of the exchange personnel, submit the required Extended Visit Request (EVR) into the International Visits System located within your Embassy. This EVR will also include information on the exchange officer's family members within the remarks section. It is important to include family members for subsequent required ID cards and other processes.

The result of this process will be an Extended Visit Approval (EVA) which will allow the exchange personnel to actually arrive and perform the duties of the exchange position.

MPEP Branch Point of Contact for nominations or questions:

- John C. Wirick, Branch Chief, 703-692-8218, john.c.wirick.civ@mail.mil
- Captain Justin Liberatore, 703-692-8146; justin.c.liberatore.mil@mail.mil

PROTOCOL:

Ms. Sofia Stasishyn and Ms. Abbey Green are ready to help you. Please direct any invitations, correspondence, or protocol questions to the FL Protocol e-mail: hqda-dcs-g-2.mbx.fl-protocol@mail.mil

You can contact Sofia directly at: sofia.stasishyn.civ@mail.mil or 703-692-1459. You can contact Abbey directly at: abbey.l.green2.civ@mail.mil or 703-692-1457.

Invitations:

General Guidelines:

Please direct any questions that you may have regarding protocol or invitations to the Army Foreign Liaison Protocol Section. We ask that you follow these guidelines concerning official social invitations extended to U.S. Army personnel:

- Please deliver invitations to Army Foreign Liaison at least 15 calendar days in advance of the event for the best U.S. Army representation.
- All invitations for Headquarters, Department of the Army personnel for official social occasions in the greater Washington, DC, area must be sent through Army Foreign Liaison. This enables Army Foreign Liaison to help you achieve your desired attendance. We ensure invitations are delivered promptly and monitor responses.
- To request the most current U.S. Army Foreign Liaison "A" List prior to sending your invitations, you may contact the Foreign Liaison Protocol Section at 703-692-1457 or 703-692-1459, or email your request to sofia.stasishyn.civ@mail.mil and abbey.l.green2.civ@mail.mil .

Hard Copy or Paper Invitations:

- PLEASE, DO NOT MAIL INVITATIONS. Deliver invitations directly to Foreign Liaison Protocol Section in Room 2E424, or to us through the Department of Defense (DoD) Diplomatic Courier located in the Pentagon Remote Delivery Facility (RDF) between 1000-1100 hours, Monday through Friday, except U.S. holidays. Please note that each invitation must reflect complete TO and FROM addresses.
- Invitations extended to U.S. Army general officers and U.S. Army civilian employees of similar rank should be accompanied by a list of all U.S. Service invitees.
- When sending invitations to a number of people for a single event, we recommend you email a scanned or electronic version of the invitation, along with a complete list of invitees, to the following three addresses, or fax a complete list of invitees to Foreign Liaison Protocol at 703-697-8412:
 - sofia.stasishyn.civ@mail.mil
 - abbey.l.green2.civ@mail.mil
 - usarmy.pentagon.hqda-dcs-g-2.mbx.fl-protocol@mail.mil

Email Invitations:

The use of e-vites is very practical, but we must issue the following guidelines to any embassies using these e-mail based invitations.

If you send invitations directly by e-mail to Headquarters, Department of the Army personnel, please also e-mail a list of all invitees to the event to the following three addresses:

- o sofia.stasishyn.civ@mail.mil
- o abbey.l.green2.civ@mail.mil
- o usarmy.pentagon.hqda-dcs-g-2.mbx.fl-protocol@mail.mil

Please do not e-mail invites directly to the senior Army leadership. By that, we mean, the Secretary of the Army, the Chief of Staff of the Army, the Under Secretary of the Army, the Vice Chief of Staff of the Army, and the Director of the Army Staff. If you wish to invite those individuals, let FL Protocol know and we will deliver the invitations. Army officials expect invitations to be routed through Army Foreign Liaison. If an invitation is sent directly to a senior leader's office, they return it to Foreign Liaison for proper routing anyway. Therefore, the most efficient delivery method is to deliver your US Army invitations to the Foreign Liaison Protocol Officers by email, courier or fax.

Dress:

Prescribing dress in invitations can be confusing, especially for military uniforms. We emphasize that you at the foreign embassies should not have to guess which uniform is appropriate for U.S. Army personnel. Please use one of the standard categories of dress: formal (rarely used), semi-formal, informal, casual or very casual. Based on that guidance, Army personnel will know the correct uniform to wear. If you want all attendees in civilian dress, please make that clear.

The most confusing category of civilian dress is "casual," and its various versions, such as "business casual" or "smart casual." The category can include everything from jacket and tie to a polo shirt and slacks. To reduce confusion, you should always explain what you mean by "casual" when it is on an invitation.

The following chart illustrates the civilian and equivalent military standards of dress.

Category of Dress	Civilian Attire	U.S. Army Uniform
Formal	White Tie	Army Mess Dress Uniform
Semi-Formal	Tuxedo (Black Tie)	Army Mess Dress, or Army Service Uniform with Black Bow Tie
Informal	Business Suit	Army Service Uniform
Casual	Sports Jacket with or without Tie (Invitation should stipulate this)	Army Class B Uniform Note: This is rarely used, and is limited to certain events, usually during hot weather.
Very Casual	Shirt and Slacks with or without Jacket. (If more casual attire is desired, such as for a barbecue, the invitation should stipulate this)	None
